Headline:
Mainly dry with some brightness in the east, southwest cloudier.

Today:
Rather cloudy with patchy rain and drizzle across western parts, for the Lothians and much of the Borders, dry with bright or sunny spells developing. Occasionally strong southwesterly winds. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Mainly dry for most but after some clear spells for the borders it will cloud over by dawn. Light winds. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Wednesday:
Dry and bright initially but outbreaks of rain on Wednesday afternoon are likely, more so for East Lothain. A fresher feel later as mainly winds turn northerly albeit staying light. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
A lot of drier and brighter weather for the the second part of the week. Feeling colder, with overnight frosts, but largely dry with sunny spells and light winds.
